Subject: Let’s Finally Catch Up! ■

Hey Sam,

It feels like forever since we last caught up! I was thinking it would be great to meet up sometime next week. I’ve sketched out a few ideas below — not all of them are fixed, so we can adjust depending on what works best for you.

Monday, April 6th, 2026 – Coffee Catch-Up
How about grabbing a coffee at 10:30 AM at Riverside Café? We can just relax, chat about work and life, and ease into the week.

Tuesday 07/04/2026 – Evening Run & Smoothies
I’m planning a 6:15 PM run through the park, finishing up near Greenfield Juice Bar around 7:00 PM. Would love if you joined!

Wednesday, 8 April 2026
Thinking of hosting a small dinner at my place starting at 7:30 PM. Nothing fancy — just homemade pasta and good conversation. If you’re free, swing by my apartment (Flat 3B, Oakwood Apartments).

Friday, 10-04-2026 – Game Night
Game night kicks off at 8:00 PM in the Community Center Lounge. A few friends are coming along — board games, snacks, and probably too much laughter.

Sunday 12.04.2026
There’s a local art exhibition opening at 4:00 PM in the Downtown Arts Gallery. I thought it could be fun to explore and then grab dinner nearby.

Let me know which ones suit you best, or if you’d prefer something totally different! Looking forward to seeing you soon.
